

Title Talk: March 2019

Reminders and Opportunities

- Schoolwide Program (SWP) guidance has been distributed in Dr. McCormick's February 22nd newsletter
- Title I carryover amounts have been released
 - Open a Title I Amendment for carryover and updated allocations
 - One hundred percent of carryover funds must be spent by the end of the grant period, 9/30/19
- Title IV Applications are still being accepted; for more info about Title IV Applications, email Lacey Bohlen or Jordyn Moses

Federal Programs Advisory Board

- Our advisory board held meetings in January and February
- The board collects data and offers policy recommendations for improvements to our division
- For more information about the advisory board click here

TITLE CON 2019 STRIVING FOR RESULTS

Title Con 2019 Highlights

- Location: PNC/Hyatt Regency in Indianapolis, IN
- Pre-Conference Workshops on 4/22/19
 - Focus on Fiscal Compliance
 - New Program Administrator
 - McKinney-Vento Homeless Liaison
- Breakout Sessions 4/23/19-4/24/19
 - Data-Driven Instruction
 - Grants Compliance
 - School Improvement Summit with vetted technical assistance partners and more
- Keynote speakers include: Dr. Jennifer McCormick, Dr. Mike Schmoker, Dr. Adam Saenz, and partners from Brustein & Manasevit
- For more information, including registration, click here

Grants 101: Where Do I Begin?

Assess

Conduct a Comprehensive Needs Assessment (CNA) of your Local Education Agency (LEA).

Research

Examine all Title grant opportunities that your LEA may be eligible for and that align to your CNA.

Review

Use this handbook to understand grant-specific requirements and guidelines.

Apply

Choose the appropriate grant from Indiana Department of Education's (IDOE) Title Grants and Support landing page to apply for funding.

Contact Information

Nathan Williamson, Director of Title Grants and Supports nwilliamson@doe.in.gov
Adis Coulibaly, Assistant Director of Title Grants and Supports acoulibaly1@doe.in.gov
Federal Grants Specialists